Football Club Internazionale Milano wishes to declare that the meeting between the president of S.S. Lazio, Claudio Lotito, and the president of Inter was nothing more than a coincidence. The meeting took place at the Westin Hotel in Milan, a 5-star hotel, the meeting was held for matters related to Serie A, to resolve multi-million euro transfers and clauses between the two clubs that could not be revealed to the media before the transfer took place. The bodyguards are always present near the president of S.S. Lazio to prevent any attempt of assassination or kidnapping, as many death threats are sent by people.

In conclusion, Football Club Internazionale Milano wants to tell everyone that the meeting was nothing serious, just a small transfer of a player between the clubs that was not completed due to lack of time.
